MARY'S MEALS RAFFLE

We will be selling raffle tickets at the back of the church on Sunday 30th November after 10am and 12 noon mass, to win a hand knitted nativity set. All proceeds to Mary's Meals which is a Scottish charity. It costs £19.15 to feed a child for a school year and Mary's Meals presently feed over 3 million people every day

PILGRIMS OF HOPE FOR SCIAF:

Our Primary 7 pupils from St Peter's have truly put their faith into action!

Living out the Gospel call to solidarity and service, they are undertaking an enterprise project to raise vital funds for SCIAF (the Scottish Catholic International Aid Fund), which works with the world's poorest to end poverty and respond to disasters. As part of their quest to become 'Pilgrims of Hope,' the children have skillfully crafted beautiful wooden Nativity scenes and other Christmas crafts. Sales will take place after the 10:00 am Mass on Sunday 30th November. They will also be available after our first Rorate Mass at 7:00 pm on Monday 1st December. Please support their wonderful efforts to help our global neighbours in need!

ADVENT TREE:

From next weekend the Advent Tree shall be flourishing in the Church—as always your support is appreciated and you are welcome to take a Leaf from the Tree for a Gift of your choice. Gifts shall be given to children from the local area. Could we please ask that you hand in your Gift for the Weekend of 13th/14th of December, thank you so much :)
