

Pupils collect old clothes for charity - Tuesday, 10 November 2009

The pupils of St Patrick's Primary School in Crosslet Road, Dumbarton, have collected been busy collecting nearly new clothes and other goods for charity. They were asked by the Parent Teacher Association to look out items they thought might be of use to other children and pack them into large plastic bags for collection from the school. Some of the pupils who worked on the project are pictured here with the school's deputy head teacher, Mrs Peters. Picture by courtesy of the Dumbarton Reporter.
